

IRSCL CONGRESS 2005 PROGRAMME

Saturday 13th August

2.00pm onwards	Registration of delegates
6.00pm	Opening reception sponsored by the O'Brien Press, Dublin
7.00pm	Supper in Dining Hall, Trinity College
8.30pm	Storytelling

Sunday 14th August

9.00am	Remarks
9.15am	Childhood and Ireland - Declan Kiberd
10.15am - 10.45am	Coffee
10.45am - 12.45pm	'Children's Lives: Children's Literature', led by Sheila Greene with Gillian Cross, Siobhán Parkinson and Pádraic Whyte

Concurrent Paper presentations

2.00pm - 4.00pm	Concurrent Paper presentations
4.00pm - 4.30pm	Tea
4.30pm - 6.00pm	Concurrent Paper presentations
6.00pm	Meeting of affiliated societies
8.00pm	Hooley Old Jameson Distillery (optional – only by pre-booking)

Monday 15th August

9.00am	Remarks
9.15am	'Home and Away – Writing and Performing Poetry for Children' – Michael Rosen
10.15am - 10.45am	Coffee
10.45am - 12.45pm	'Perspectives on the work of Hans Christian Andersen' 1. A panel presentation led by Nina Christensen with members of the NorChiLit group

Concurrent Paper presentations

2.00pm - 4.00pm	Perspectives on the work of 'Hans Christian Andersen' 2. A panel presentation led by Nina Christensen with members of the NorChiLit group
-----------------	---

Concurrent Paper presentations

4.00pm - 5.00pm	IRSCL General Membership Meeting
6.00pm	Reception in the Mansion House, official residence of Dublin's Lord Mayor and in Dublin City Library and Archive, housed in a

8.00pm historic Victorian building on Pearse Street.
Optional walking tours around Dublin led by O'Brien Press authors

Tuesday 16th August

9.00am Remarks
9.15am 'Childhood Innocence: Then and Now' - Anne Higonnet
10.15am - 10.45am Coffee
10.45am - 12.45pm The World and/of Irish Picturebooks, led by Sandra Beckett with artists Marie-Louise Fitzpatrick, Niamh Sharkey and P.J. Lynch

Concurrent Paper presentations

2.00pm - 3.30pm Concurrent Paper presentations
3.30pm - 4.00pm Tea
4.00pm - 5.30pm Concurrent Paper presentations
6.00pm - 7.30pm Reception in the National Library of Ireland
8.00pm Film Night: 'The Boy from Mercury' starring Hugh O'Connor, Rita Tushingham, Tom Courtenay and directed by Martin Duffy, in the Edmund Burke Theatre, Trinity College

Wednesday 17th August

9.00am Remarks
9.15am Paul Muldoon
10.15am - 10.45am Coffee
10.45am - 12.45pm 'Poetry and Children Today' Led by Morag Styles and Jane O'Hanlon with Seamus Cashman, Rita Anne Higgins, Áine Ní Ghlinn and Mary Shine Thompson

Concurrent Paper presentations

2.00pm - 3.30pm Concurrent Paper presentations
3.30pm - 4.00pm Tea
3.45pm - 5.30pm Concurrent Paper presentations
7.30pm Pre-dinner reception
8.00pm Conference dinner
10.00pm Music

In addition it will be possible to visit the Book of Kells on the campus of Trinity College, view the Prints and Drawings collection at the National Library of Ireland by special arrangement with the Library, and courtesy of the Electricity Supply Board, tour Number 29, one of Dublin's fine Georgian houses.

It will be possible to purchase Children's Literature: Global and Local, papers from the 16th IRSCL congress, at the conference.

Books by speakers and other publications of interest to IRSCL congress delegates will be stocked at the designated congress bookshop.

Supporters of the 2005 congress:

The O'Brien Press: www.obrien.ie

Foras na Gaeilge: www.forasnagaeilge.ie

Children's Books Ireland: www.childrensbooksireland.ie

National Library of Ireland: www.nli.ie

IBBY Ireland: www.ibbyireland.ie

Dublin City Libraries: www.dublincity.ie/living_in_the_city/libraries/index.asp